Airport Certification Information Bulletin 2010-05

The Federal Aviation Administration in partnership with the American Association of Airport Executives will be hosting a Basic Airport Safety and Operations Specialist (ASOS) School in Chicago, June 27-30, 2010.

ASOS schools are specifically tailored for airport personnel responsible for conducting and maintaining the self-inspection programs of public-use and military shared-use airfields. The faculty will include FAA headquarters and regional personnel, officials from the airport community, airline pilots and others knowledgeable of airport operations and safety matters.

All sessions will take place at the Embassy Suites O'Hare/Rosemont.
